

Visitors – Paying Library Charges

These instructions are for visitors who wish to pay library charges. For details on how to access their online library account, please see: <https://libanswers.durham.ac.uk/faq/271900>.

To pay library charges, go to <https://pay.durham.ac.uk/library-payments>.

Visitors will need to add the barcode from their campus card in the Non-University members section towards the bottom of the page to view details of their account.

The screenshot shows the 'Library Payments' section of the Durham University Library website. At the top, there is a header with 'Library Payments' and a breadcrumb trail 'Individual Services > Library Payments'. Below this is a section titled 'Log in to Durham University Library'. The text explains that users can log in to pay library fines or charges. It distinguishes between current University members (who use their University username and password) and Non-University members (who use their barcode). A 'Sign in »' button is provided. For Non-University members, there is a text box for the barcode and a 'Proceed »' button. The text for Non-University members lists categories: Subscription, Associate, SCONUL Access, Diocese and Chapter, Common Award Students, or St John's College Library card holders.
